Obedience to the Heavenly Vision

As we celebrate the Christmas season, we remember the heavenly vision of the star and the obedience to follow it that brought the wise men to leave their land and travel the miles to worship the King of Kings. We too, following in their footsteps, put behind our daily routine and recognize the extraordinary moment of the Incarnation, the birth of our Savior and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Still, we don't pause for long as the reality of Emmanuel, God with us, remains but a vague idea to so many. We press on until the whole world hears of the reconciliation made possible through the birth of God's Son.

While we are glad to celebrate this Christmas surrounded by family here in the United States as we continue our year of itineration, we long to press on in obedience to the vision that we seek to achieve, that of the Yucatan peninsula full of churches diverse in class, status, education, and language, but united in their

Highlights From the First Half

Since our arrival in July, we've been blessed to travel the country, reuniting with old friends and making new ones along the way. In the process, we're grateful to have reached the 83% mark in monthly support and the 62% mark in our cash account. One of the highlights has been Dave's marathon run, a personal best that helped generate over $4,000 in related offerings! Thanks to all who have greeted us and helped along the way!

Relate

Between running, drama, choir, weekend trips to supporting churches, and a visit from Grandma, our dynamic threesome has managed to stay active this semester!
