

The Quarterly Publication of the Godzwa Family, Missionaries to the Yucatan

An Opening for Ministry

January marked an opening to not only a new semester but also to new relationships impacting Instituto Bíblico Bethel (IBB) and several area churches. While Dave introduced personal evangelism concepts to a group of 9 incoming students, a team of 12 from Bolivar First Assembly arrived to renovate the IBB facilities and minister in nearby communities.

It was wonderful to see new friendships formed as the team worked together with Dave's class and other IBB students to install a new front entrance, but it was even more satisfying to see area ministers given a boost as

Keep Praying!

We can't thank you enough for your prayers on our behalf, especially in the midst of such a full ministry schedule. We were part of four outreaches in February in the towns of Valladolid, Maní, Mérida, and Sahé where over 850 people they coordinated to bless the children of Mucuyché, Yaxnic, and Yaxcopoil.

In Yaxcopoil (above), Pastors Elizabeth Chi and Jorge Garcia were especially grateful for our visit. They've recently adopted the church in that village, which had fallen on hard times due to the prolonged absence of a lead pastor. The team's ministry there brought them the opportunity to make several new acquaintances and received a clear message of God's love! Still, our work is yet ahead of us with three more evangelistic activities in March. Keep praying for divine appointments with open and receptive hearts among those reached and for encouraged the church leadership to renew their commitment to reaching the children of their town.

Thanks, Bolivar First and students of IBB for your service, and thanks to all of you, our supporters, for providing us this opening for ministry!

diligence in the subsequent follow-up of new contacts.

Relate

When does more mouths to feed and waiting in line for the bathroom become a thing of joy? When our three MKs are under one roof! We were so glad to have Rebekah, Joseph, and Jonathan together for a visit over the holidays. Below is a photo of them in Sahé, one of our church plant locations.

Get Involved

We're scheduling for our 2019-2020 itineration period, which starts in August of 2019. To schedule us, follow the link: <http://bit.ly/TbmLBB> or scan the code.

dave.godzwa@agmd.org
Acct# 2696136