Mobilizing for Ministry

...I don't know the ropes, hardly know the 'ins' and 'outs' of this job. And here I am, set down in the middle of the people you've chosen, a great people... Give me a God-listening heart so I can lead your people well, discerning the difference between good and evil. For who on their own is capable of leading your glorious people?" 1 Kings 3:7-9 MSG

The above paragraph is the prayer of Solomon as he took over the leadership of the people of Israel. As he pondered the enormity of the task in front of him, he knew that he didn't have what it would take to be king. In his realization, he cried out to God for wisdom to lead.

In my own small way, I am having a "Solomon moment." Since my election in May as president of the District Evangelism Department, not only has our team been required to define our vision and mission, but schedule activities for our two year term as well. Now, as the regions and sections of the district elect their own representatives to the department, we're preparing to communicate that vision to the 45 people that will soon be a part of our team. There is much at stake as we move forward, coordinating ministry with district officials, managing resources, and encouraging participation with the hope of making an impact for the kingdom of God in these next two years—much reason to ask for God's wisdom.

Would you pray with us, then, for God's direction to leverage the resources that He has given us so that we will see the vision of the Yucatán full of churches becoming a reality?

Relate

The fall season brings with it a new school year. Jonathan enters into ninth grade, his last year at Calvary, while Joseph switches from home schooling to begin his junior year at TecMilenio, but the biggest change is Rebekah's enrollment at Evangel University as a freshman in the Communications Program. We appreciate your prayers for our threesome as they adjust to their new situations.

We're beginning to schedule for our 2019-2020 iteration period, starting in August of 2019. To schedule us, follow the link: <http://bit.ly/TbmLBB> or scan the code.

Equipping the Next Generation

- Instruction and application continue within our church planting pilot program (top right), now in its 9th month.
- On September 16th, the 9th generation of students from Instituto Bíblico Bethel's alternative program will launched into ministry, taking with them the church planting principles Dave taught them this summer.
